Roderick Theater.
Don't fail to see the pictures at the Roderick this week. They are of the funniest kind and keep the audience convinced in laughter. The pictures Water Cure and a Policeman for a Day being both screens. Mr. O'Neill is making a decided hit singing the patriotic march-song, "It's Great to Be a Soldier Man." There has been much comment among the public as to the safety of our theater in case of fire, and we wish to state that it has been thoroughly inspected by the fire chief, Mr. Stanton, and has met with his approval. The walls are all lined with metal and the operating booth with asbestos, therefore assuring absolute safety. Drop in any time from 2 to 5 and 7 to 10.

Next Week at Sheedy's.
Mr. Sheedy's selection of specialties to please the theater-goers of Norwich was more than appreciated, and the packed houses last week was ample proof of the satisfaction given by the big bill. For next week he has selected another star programme, and as a head-liner has Little Gertrude Griffith & Co. in "Bobbie's Pal." Others on the programme are Dave Denno in songs and dances. His dancing is extremely clever and eccentric. Miss Mildred Del Monte, the dainty singing comedienne, will also be heard. For an acrobatic knock-about act the Three Toms are in a class by themselves, and are sure to hold the audience with laughter. The selections of moving pictures will be up to the usual high standard attained by this house, and a special film will be shown, The Football Warrior.

BROADWAY THEATER.

Law Welch in "The Shoemaker."

Melodramas, like the rest, come and go, but the new play will introduce Law Welch, the impenetrable comedian and character actor, in an entertaining novel play, designed to have long life. It is by Hal Reid and called "The Shoemaker," and will be at the Broadway theater on Monday, Feb. 1.
During the four acts of this latest play there is not a dull period. The scenes shift from the heart of the Bowery, New York, to the far west, Mr. Welch has a "role" that needs only his present enviable reputation. He will appear as Morris Goldberg, a trusting and confident Hebrew shoemaker, who believes that honesty is honest. It is a play for the masses as well as for the classes, with an equal blending of laughter, pathos, tears and heart interest, sufficient to appeal to every nature.

Mr. Welch will be supported by a carefully selected and capable company.
